
Horizontal axis: φ(p), over 16 shadow models per patient; bars mark the group mean. The two patients occupy different ranges, so no single threshold separates IN from OUT for both.